

Acknowledgments

We are grateful to the many students, colleagues, advisers, reviewers, and program managers who have contributed greatly to our proposals over the years or directly to this project. While we were writing this book, numerous people generously shared ideas, experiences, and proposals with us. We hope that the following list includes most of the people with whom we have communicated. Our sincere apologies for any omissions: John Aber, Victor Ambros, Matt Ayres, Joel Blum, Doug Bolger, Christine Bothe, Rick Boyce, C. Page Chamberlain, Celia Chen, Ann Clark, Jim Coleman, Hany Farid, Marcelo Gleiser, Mary Lou Guerinot, Nelson Hairston, Jr., Dick Holmes, Mary Hudson, Tom Jack, Kevin Kirk, Jon Kull, Eric Lambie, Jane Lipson, Pat McDowell, Mark McPeck, Frank Magilligan, Eric Miller, William North, Jerry Nunnally, George O'Toole, Bonnie Paton, David Peart, Bill Reiners, Jim Reynolds,

Roger Smith, Richard Stemberger, Judy Stern, Amy Stockman, Ross Virginia, Richard Wright, Wayne Wurtsbaugh, Ruth Yanai, and four anonymous reviewers.

Our special recognition goes to our dear colleagues, Noel Perrin and Donella Meadows, both of whom have passed away since the first edition was published. Their advice for navigating the publishing world was invaluable. Lisa Clay, Carrie Larabee, and especially Susan Milord contributed a range of ideas, as well as editing and technical assistance. Margaret Dyer Chamberlain provided many cartoons for our consideration. Finally, we thank David Peart, Noel Perrin, and two anonymous reviewers for carefully reading versions of the original manuscript, Heidi Downey for valuable editorial assistance, Matthew Laird for logistical assistance, and Jean Thomson Black for her support, enthusiasm, and hard work as our editor.

We also wish to acknowledge the many users of our book who have contributed important input and encouragement. One of the most resounding comments was to keep the second edition brief! We hope we have managed to follow this advice.
